IMPRISON FEDERAL AGENT. NEW YORK, March 19.—William Roberts, a federal prohibition agent, was Saturday sentenced to 30 days in the workhouse. He was found guilty of disorderly conduct for having entered the home of Elias Davis without a search warrant.

JULES C. STEIN.

Jules C. Stein, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stein, 1306 W. Washington av., was graduated from Rush Medical College, Chicago, Saturday. Dr. Stein graduated from Winona Academy, Winona Lake, Ind., in 1912. His first year in college was spent at the University of West Virginia, Morgantown, W. Va., after which he attended the University of Chicago, receiving the degree of M. B. in March, 1915, before being 19 years old. During his academic work at the University of Chicago he received several honor scholarships and finished the four year course in two and one-half years. In 1917 the South Bend high school conferred him an honorary diploma for most of his academic work was completed here.

Dr. Stein is well known to the music loving public, having established his musical organizations in

EASTER FOOTWEAR

HARBINGERS

The robin's cheery note marks the advent of Spring, and just as surely does K-K-Footwear mark the change in fashions.

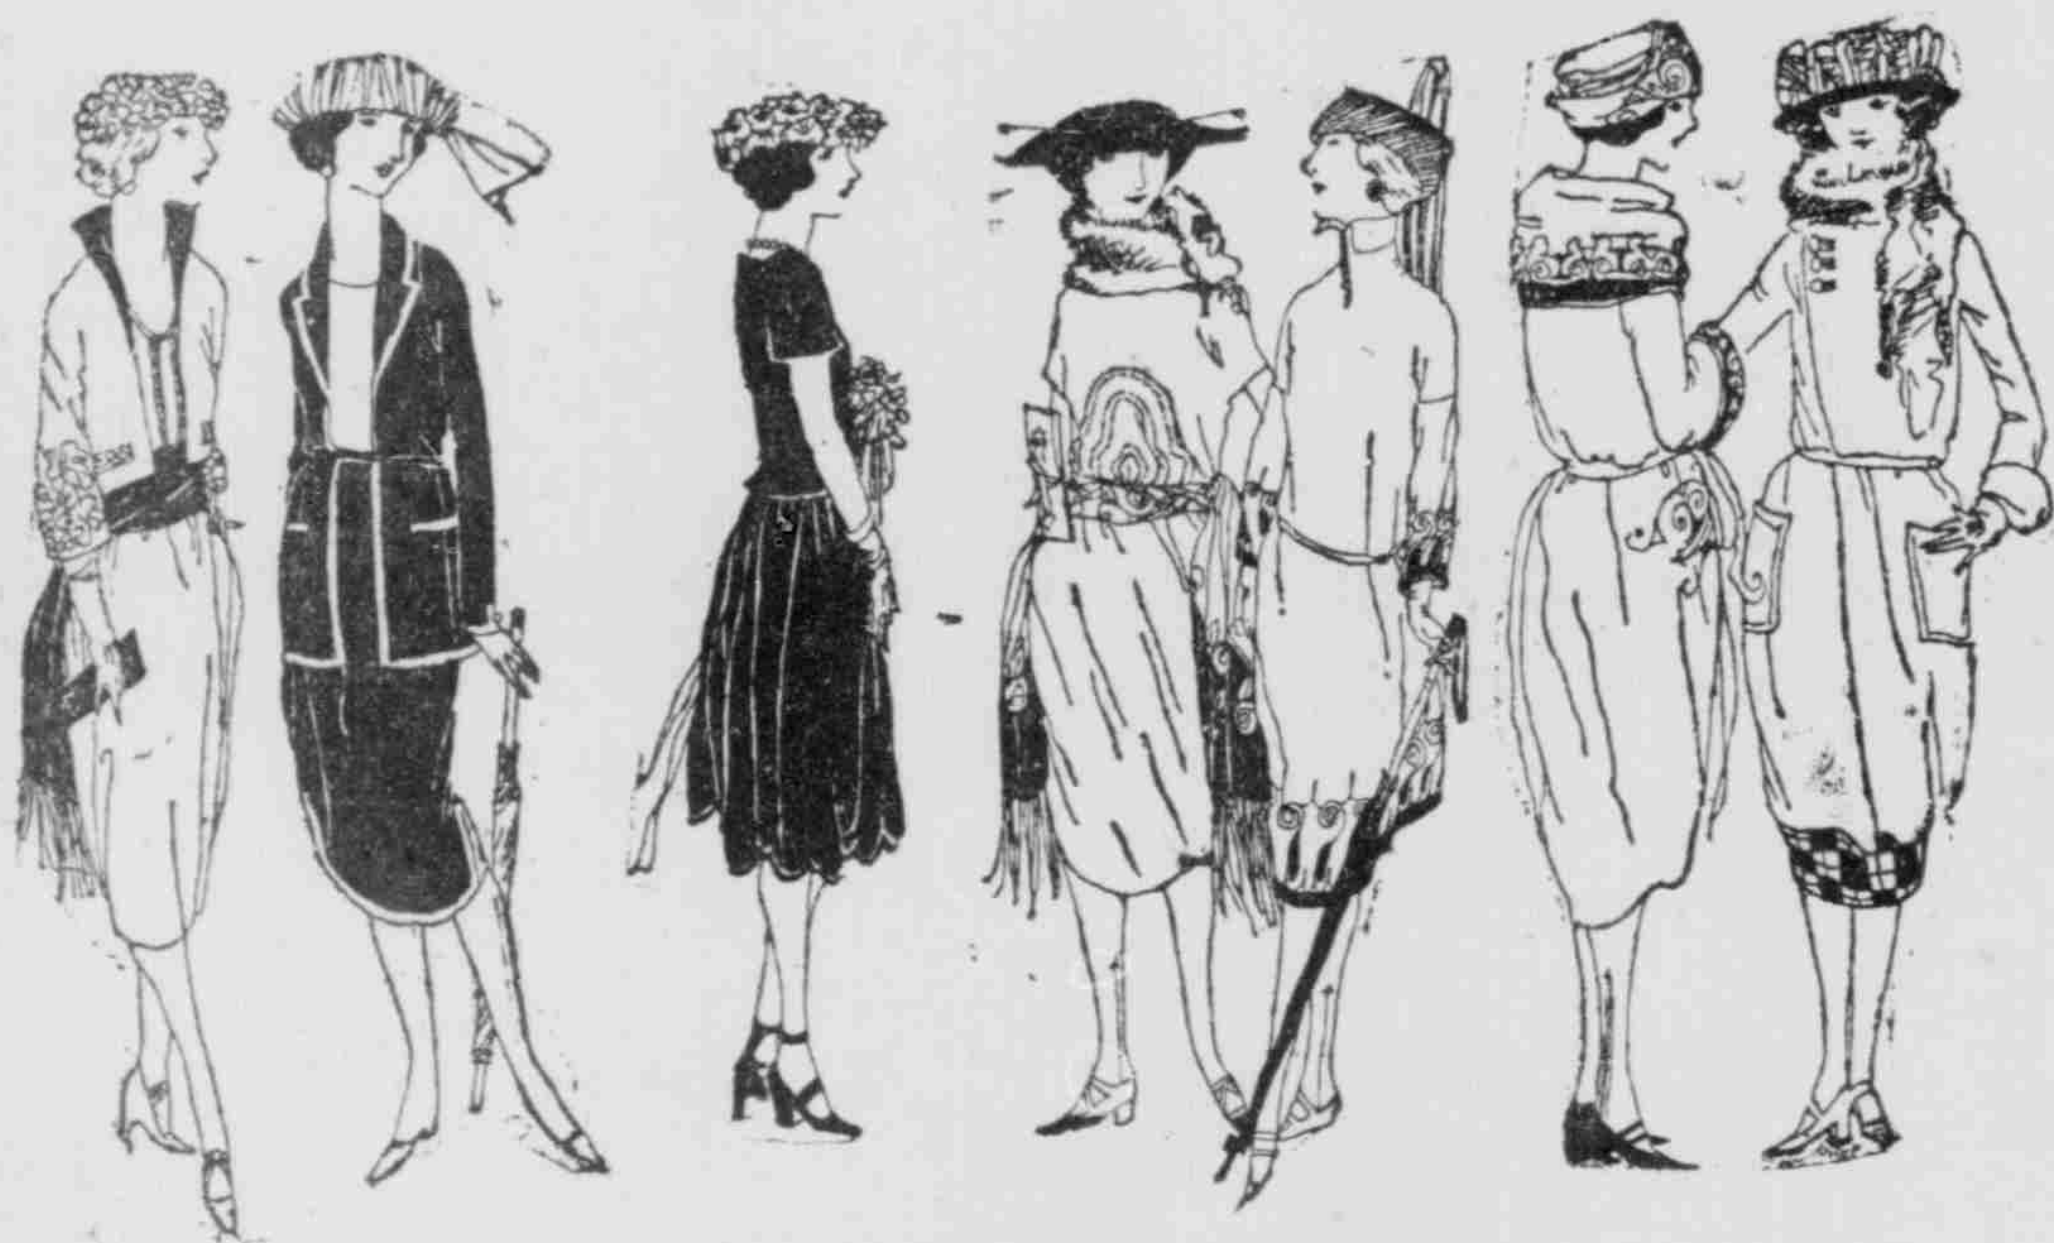

Velvety grays, fetching strap effects. Petite baby "Louis" heels are centers of attraction this season. Better than the telling, though, is to see the infinite variety of smart vogues on display at our shop.

You are sure to find just the style you have in mind for Easter, and your satisfaction will grow with the wearing. Every pair holds the promise of becoming your "favorite" whether you pay $8 or $14—our price range this season. Hosiery to match.
